Libby Lynn : I See Santa Fe!: A Children's Guide and Coloring Book before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised I See Santa Fe!: A Children's Guide and Coloring Book:

Thirty-two page saddle-stitched paperbound children's guide and coloring book. Simple, child-like drawings illustrate the sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and "feel" of old Santa Fe: adobe walls, chile ristras, the Santa Fe River and Plaza, pottery and rugs, statues and fountains, tortillas and sopailles, pinon smoke and pigeons. "Should delight any child under ten." - New Mexico Magazine

From the PublisherPerfect to prepare children for a trip to Santa Fe, or as a souvenir of a wonderful visit. The back cover is designed as a mailer (requires four first-class stamps) with space for a message, so grandparents can share their experiences with little ones back home.About the AuthorLibby Lynn (the childhood name of a grown-up psychologist and author) wrote this book with her son. Moses is the New Mexican boy who likes the wonderful sights and sounds of Santa Fe. Pitching peanuts to the pigeons in the Plaza (as well as chasing them) is one of his favorite pastimes.
