I went to high school in Bernardsville 1956-60. I was a bit disappointed that this book, for the most part, only covered up to the 1920s. In other words, you won't remember much unless the old buildings were still standing. I had hoped for photos of the towns that were taken in the 1950s. There were graduation group photos from PG elementary school, as well as Bernards High, but no photos of the actual schools. Let's face it, anyone that could have remembered anything personally, are dead.
