Landscapes Of The Interior is an eloquent antidote to the separation that people are feeling between themselves and nature. Its seventeen essays take the reader on a unique journey that plumbs the depths of the human connection with nature. Traversing natural landscapes as diverse as the tall-grass prairie, the semi-desert Okanagan region of Washington state, Puget Sound, and the mountains of British Columbia, Landscapes Of The Interior spans the scientific, the poetic and the spiritual. Captivating and impassioned, Don Gayton's stories reach out to us in original ways, reminding us of how nature can be an intense source of spirituality and renewal. Landscapes Of The Interior is a splendid addition to any environmental appreciation or outdoor enthusiast reading list. -- Midwest Book
