Isabelle Demenge : Leap Hop New York, Travel books for kids before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Leap Hop New York, Travel books for kids:

Leap Hop New York will focus on major tourist sites such as The Empire State Building, Central Park, the Bronx Zoo, the Lower East Side, Ellis Island and the Statue of Liberty among others. The children will be engaged as they explore New York with fun and educational challenges that vary from place to place, such as an I-Spy game in the Cloisters and the Chrysler Building, a quiz walk in Central Park and Grand Central, a street art scavenger hunt in the Lower East Side, and a unique sudoku puzzle in Chinatown with Chinese characters.

About the Author Isabelle Demenge is a native of Paris who moved to New York City to start a family. She has lived many lives: corporate finance lawyer, mother of three boys, amateur photographer, world traveler and writer. Facing the difficulties of traveling with children in Cambodia, she decided to write for her kids the book that she couldn't find... Having passed her kids crash-test, she continued developing a series of children s travel books for other destinations. Her books help families move from kid friendly destinations to places that are culturally richer in a way that all will enjoy with information hand-picked for children and interactive games.
