Jane Lyle Diepeveen, Cornell Christianson : Legendary Locals of Fair Lawn before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Legendary Locals of Fair Lawn:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Legendary Locals By James Livingstone The book is right on about who's who in Fair Lawn sports history ! A must read for the local sports buff. The picture and short bio on living legend Dick Englehart and his contributions to Fair Lawn High School sports is quite moving and and just a small part of the vast history of interesting people that are profiled !

Fair Lawns early history can be traced back to the Lenni-Lenape tribe before the early founders from the 1700s such as Peter Garretson and Jacob Vanderbeck settled the area. Through the years, it has been home to businessmen, entertainers, and even heroes, like police officer Mary Ann Collura who was fatally shot pursuing a suspect. Some have been lifelong members of the community, like Mayor John Cosgrove and state senator Robert Gordon. Marge and Julian Bornstein and Henry Pop Milnes are remembered for their service to Fair Lawn. Two youngsters found success on the Broadway stage with Donna Vivino in Wicked and Trevor Braun in Billy Elliot. Legendary Locals of Fair Lawn highlights a variety of the people and businesses who have contributed to both the town and the country.

About the AuthorThis is the third in a series of books about Fair Lawn written or cowritten by Fair Lawn historian Jane Lyle Diepeveen. Active in local historic preservation and civic affairs, she served for 20 years on the Fair Lawn Planning Board helping to guide the boroughs growth. She coauthored Images of America: Fair Lawn. Lifelong resident Cornell Christianson is a writer and playwright whose musicals can be seen in off-Broadway theaters.
