Her brother, Robert Thiry got a page which is kind of neat. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful photos. Great information By Kindle Customer This is a must have book for anyone interested in the history of the people of Pine City, MN. Wonderful photos. Great information. history!

Throughout the history of Pine City, individuals have dreamed, struggled, and created a remarkable place of American culture. Legendary Locals of Pine City represents an amazing mix of talents and activities, sometimes with far-reaching effects. The Pine City story is told here in the faces of its people: the innovators who brought industry and commerce; generous people and institutions who have given back to the community in a variety of ways; participants in Pine City's thriving cultural life embracing a spectrum of interests and enthusiasms; and ordinary people living everyday lives who have done extraordinary things or had remarkable experiences. This book honors such individuals as the renowned Karla Nelsen, the world's most muscular woman; Anna Dickey Olesen, the first woman to break the glass ceiling and run for US Senate; and Shane Bauers mom, Cindy Hickey, who worked diligently for more than two years to free her son from captivity in Iran, along with many other memorable people.

About the Author Local historian and author Nathan Johnson also authored Images of America: Pine City and now presents images of local legends from historical archives, family collections, and his own photographs of contemporary Pine Citians.
