

[Get free] Legendary Locals of Southbury

Legendary Locals of Southbury

Virginia Palmer-Skok

*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#1862742 in Books Palmer skok Virginia 2013-06-24 2013-06-24Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.25 x .31 x 6.50l, .85 #File Name: 1467100684128 pagesLegendary Locals of Southbury Connecticut | File size: 29.Mb

Virginia Palmer-Skok : Legendary Locals of Southbury before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Legendary Locals of Southbury:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. My hometownBy TroublemakerHaving lived in Southbury all my life, it was interesting to read about people who lived here before me The town has changed so much over the last forty years. We had grown form a small farm community to bustling suburban mini city with 2 major shopping areas I know the author with whom I went school with. I love the history0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Legendary Locals of SouthburyBy HooverThis was an excellent book and very interesting. I grew up with most of the people quoted and it was fun to "hear" them again.

The town of Southbury was incorporated in 1787. It was a mere 50 years after the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock that the original 15 families were drawn to the promise of religious freedom in what was then known as Ancient Woodbury. Descendants of these families and subsequent individuals have called the town their home: community activists fighting the establishment of the German Bund; writers such as Gladys Tabor; celebrities such as Ed Sullivan and Victor Borge; artists, community leaders, educators, businesspeople, and ordinary folks. All have left indelible marks on the rich fabric of this beautiful New England community with the town seal ""Unica Unaque,"" translated as ""The One and Only.

About the Author Virginia Palmer-Skok, author of Images of America: Southbury and Images of America: Southbury Revisited, presents images generously donated from local archives and family collections. It is her passion for making history come alive through individuals and groups that drove her to continue to tell the story of Southbury, her hometown.