Do More Business in ThailandBy Donald Mitchell" And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, 'Where are you going, and where do you come from?'" -- Judges 19:17 (NKJV)When I was invited to speak at an international business conference in Bangkok, I first sought out that ever-reliable guide, Fodor's. As the time approached to leave, I realized that I was missing a lot of information that business people need . . . but tourists don't. As a result, I looked around for a business guide to Thailand, and I was delighted to find this one that answered all of my questions . . . and gave me some unexpected insights into what to do.If you want to do business in Thailand, get this book!

About the series: Catering for the needs of the discerning business traveler, the Business Traveller's Handbooks are the vital passport to a successful and enjoyable trip, containing: * Insider tips on how to get things done * Industry overviews * Insights from veteran of the international business community * Hotels of quality * How to make the most of any free time * Useful addresses and contact details * Detailed maps of key business districts The Business Traveller's Handbooks are the essential companion that will guide you from the first stages of preparation through to the finer points of negotiating in the local style. The series' authors not only write confidently of the larger economic and commercial issues, they also shed light on the nitty-gritty detail of day-to-day realities.
