About the Author Gia Lucy fell in love with the beach the first time she stood at the edge of the sea gathering up the courage to throw herself in. She was three years old. Since then her life has revolved around the rise and fall of the ocean s tide. Living with her husband and two children in San Clemente, California, Gia seizes every opportunity to explore, photograph and write about Southern California. In the course of her travels, she has written about the beaches of Orange County in her book entitled, Sun, Sand Surf The Ultimate Guide To Orange County Beaches and the wineries of Eastern San Diego in Temecula Wine Country The Undiscovered Jewel Of Southern California. After visiting hundreds of beaches, Gia admits that the sparkling shores and intimate coves of San Diego are some of her favorites and it is her hope that The Beaches Of San Diego Your Ultimate Guide To The Sun, Sand Surf will bring to readers the delight and even some of the passion for the beach and the ocean which she still enjoys.
