writers who take me places I will likely never see. I especially loved Don George's recollection of his emotional time in Cambodia. His work is always demonstrates what good travel writing is all about. The thought provoking intro by Rolf Potts lets us know why travel writing, has been, and always will be, a very important medium capturing the essence of life changing journeys for the authors. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great selection of stories. By Terri PhD Love this series. Great selection of stories 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. excellent handbook for your travel abroad By Hung-Tak Lee Of all stories in this selection, two stand out; that is, one for Ireland and the other one for Cambodia. I recommend these two stories for those who intend to visit these two places sometime. K. M. Churchill's story on Inis Mac Neasain, Casey's Bar, Maloney's Pub literally transports you to what they call La Verte Irelande, and Don George's photographic description of Cambodian and Thai soldiers mingling in peace in front of the Peace Temple at Ta Krabey tells you there is no need to build a wall even in a war zone.
