introduction this ...By Laura NessolaI always enjoy these annual collections and specifically liked the introduction this year as it discussed adventures for those who are aging (uh-hum, that's most of us any way). Especially liked "...the thrill of being on the road has always been wed, for me, to the thrill of never knowing what a day might involve, knowing only that I'd say yes." Adored the story of Barbara (that one will "walk around inside my head" and descriptions of adventure as limitless, ageless state of mind that "reboots our regular lives." I underlined and starred the description of "true adventurers" and hope I make it to the Surfing Turtle Lodge... :) When I am not planning my next trip or posting pictures of my last trip, I am reading vicariously of others' travels and especially love snippets shared in Best Women's Travel Writing series. Happy Trails.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Never failsBy Maria del SolWhen I choose a volume of Travelers' Tales, I know it's going to be good. Never fails to deliver me to another place on the coat tails of the writer. What fun.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Unique stories.By G. SparksI am really enjoying this book. Each chapter describes a unique experience by a women traveling somewhere in this world. Amazing.

In The Best Womens Travel Writing, Volume 10: True Stories from Around the World, thirty celebrated and emerging writers invite you to ride shotgun as they travel the globe to discover new places, people, and facets of themselves. The essays are as diverse as the destinations, the common thread being fresh, compelling storytelling that will make you laugh, weep, wish you were there, or thank your lucky stars you weren't. The Best Womens Travel Writing speaks to the reasons why we travel and how travel changes our lives. In The Best Womens Travel Writing, Volume 10: True Stories from Around the World, you'll: Study the ancient art of belly dancing in Egypt Go day-drinking with a sea captain in Croatia Scuba dive through an underground cave in Mexico Run from massive exploding balloons in Burma Embed with the military in Afghanistan Experience a different kind of time in Argentina Go dogsledding in Finland Confront heartache, pain, and a deadly creature in Indonesia Negotiate with smugglers in Mongolia Marry a stranger at Burning Man... and much, much more.

Praise for the Best Women's Travel Writing series: "This book will grace my bedside for years to come." Simon Winchester "Delightful (and sometimes dreadful) wayfaring adventures from all corners of the globe." The Washington Post "There is real drama and comedy in these pages." San Francisco Chronicle "An inspiration and a fine read for anyone who is missing the open road." Transitions Abroad "Even as a veteran traveler, I found new revelations here." Herbert Gold
