Joanna Downey, Christian J. Lau : The Boston Dog Lover's Companion (Dog Lover's Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Boston Dog Lover's Companion (Dog Lover's Series):

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Warning! Dogtown (Gloucester) has adjacent rifle range!By paul_rowe@millipore.comMy wife and I love your book. We have visited 10 of the parks you list. However, please warn your readers that there is an adjacent rifle range in the Dogtown walk in Gloucester. If you have a dog that is frightened by gunfire, thunder, or cars backfiring then stay away from this walk! Our Bearded Collie ran away when the rifles started firing. We were very fortunate to find our dog (although about 4 miles away) in about 4 hours. I would not want this to happen to anyone else. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Joanna Downey, your the best! By RJJ Invaluable Information. My dog and I have been to so many of the places listed in this book that we otherwise never would have known about. Each park has a very descriptive summary. They even mention places to lodge or eat with your pet. Getting out with your pet is a great way to explore nature, get some exercise and bond ever so closely with your best friend and this book shows you where to do it. I can't wait until a central and western MA area guide is released :) 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. This book is crazy! By kidcanto@tiac.net You name a outdoor recreation spot near Boston and it's in this book! Even if you don't have a dog and you simply enjoy the outdoors, you need this book! It lists ALL of the places to hike and explore in and around Boston. My dog Lucky says hello too. I also agree with the other reader that Great Brook Farm State Park should be on your top doggy list. You rated it 4 paws with leash-free roaming. This place rocks. Thanx- Shawn
