Mary Long : The Complete Guide To Conducting Seminars At Sea before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Complete Guide To Conducting Seminars At Sea:

4 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Extremely disappointingBy J. WiedemerThis book is far from complete. I was interested in finding out more information on full time employment opportunities for academic lecturers and professional experts on ships. This book is a guide on how to get free cruises by offering to lecture onboard. There is nothing in here that common sense would not dictate (if you know about a topic, then you can lecture about it ... seems self-evident to me!). The font is revealing ... GIGANTIC type which would qualify as large print by any standards. I have the impression that this is aimed at retirees hoping to get free travel. If you expect to get paid for your work, then this is not the book for you...I rate this the lowest possible rating, and that is too generous, especially considering that this is such a thin paperback with a steep ...price tag!6 of 8 people found the following review helpful. Exciting BookBy Katherine HorandiSeminars At Sea is a very exciting book! The information I obtained was vital to planning and fulfilling my dreams of working on a Greek Cruise Ship touring the Mediterranean Sea. Seminars At Sea prepared me for my journey--that traveled on three, five and seven day cruises to the Greek Islands, Egypt, Israel and Turkey.I highly recommend Seminars At Sea for anyone who is thinking about working or traveling abroad! :)9 of 10 people found the following review helpful. The Complete Guide To Conducting Seminars at SeaBy Paul A. HarveyI found the book a really good 'source' as well as guide. The author has shared some good tips on the three ways to get aboard ships to lecture. I liked the REAL sample letters and photo gallery, that really helps paint the whole picture of what it is really like to seminar aboard the worlds luxury liners. As far as I know, this is the ONLY book of its kind out there. Thanks .com

This book is an informational guide book with a step by step guide complete with real on-board seminar samples. It is designed by Mary Long, a world authority and professional speaker on cruise ships for consultants, trainers, speakers, organizations or associations in virtually any industry, trade or business who are interested in taking their subjects on the high seas aboard the luxury cruise liners of the world.

" A must not only for individuals but for organizations and corporations! This instructive book opens doors, helping you take advantage of the exciting and lucrative opportunities awaiting you and your speaking on board the fabulous cruise ships of today" Dr. Lynda C. Falkenstein, "The Niche Doctor" and author - Nichecraft -- Dr. Lynda C. Falkenstein, The Niche Doctor and author of Nichecraft" As a cruise industry specialist and having attended Mary's seminars, the material lives up to the authors expertise. I can apply this essential information immediately. This book is a tremendous contribution to the cruise and travel industry" -- Corrine Gruetter, ACG Cruise Travel" As a veteran seminar at sea speaker, I highly recommend Mary's book for ANYONE interested in conducting seminars or lecturing aboard cruise ships. All the necessary steps are here, nothing has been left out!" -- Gary Fee, President, Outside Sales Support Systems" I found the material very concise and easy to follow showing me clearly where to start" -- Reynaldo Liao, Facilities Engineer San Bruno From the Author Welcome to the exciting world of seminaring at sea. I am thrilled to announce; The Complete Guide to Conducting Seminars at Sea is the only book of its kind in print today. Its time has come. This is not about how wonderful my life has been cruising and lecturing on five star cruise ships AND getting paid very well for it. Its exclusive purpose is providing you enough information so that you, too, can take your own speaking and/or seminar business aboard the worlds luxury liners and make a tidy profit at the same time. The book is designed for individuals to corporations and/or organizations with sample materials for proposals, fundraiser and tax deductible benefits AND a complete photo gallery. Regardless of your age or occupation learn how-to combine your passions for travel and speaking while visiting the worlds exotic ports of call. What could possibly be a better combination? The cruise industry is the fastest growing area of the world's largest industry 'tourism travel'. With an average of 20 new ships being built annually, state of the art conferences rooms with electronic databases are being added to all the ships. Learn to do your own thing or be hired by the cruise lines, it's all in described in this book with sample cruise line contacts. I invite you to share my extraordinary experiences and first hand knowledge in the abundance of what seminaring at sea has to offer. We will go from the idea stage utilizing real marketing strategies that create sell out crowds knowing what to look for in choosing the right cruise line. "If you can seminar on land - you can do the same thing aboard a floating hotel aboard the worlds luxury liners" "The Complete Guide to Conducting Seminars at Sea is living testimony to the unlimited and prosperous opportunities awaiting tens of thousands of professionals." "Several years ago when I conducted my first seminar at sea I asked myself 'does it really get any better than this?' Today, I still feel the same way. " 'If you enjoy speaking and traveling to exotic destinations and making a boat full of $$$ - this book is for you!'
