Disabled Diva : The Disabled Diva's Unofficial Disneyland Vacation Planning Guide: 2016 Edition before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Disabled Diva's Unofficial Disneyland Vacation Planning Guide: 2016 Edition:

Planning a trip to Disneyland can be stressful, especially when you or someone in your family has a chronic illness, disability, special need, or dietary restriction. Most often these people spend the first few days, if not all of their vacation trying to figure out what they can or cannot do. This book not only gives you an idea of what they could do, it also full describes everything they need to know about visiting with a disability. This is more than just information for the disabled, it contains planning resources to help anybody plan a magical vacation.
