expected recipes and some photographs.. and connections to the city and the wharf.. this was primarily a promotion piece and not really a "book" of recipes...returned it...disappointed...3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A kitchen cook friendly, and sea food enthusiasts delightBy Midwest Book ReviewCompiled, organized, and edited by A.K. Crump, The Food Of Fisherman's Wharf: Cooking And Feasting From San Francisco To Monterey is nothing less than a culinary celebration of Northern California's coastal cuisine. More than three hundred full color photographs and forty in-depth waterfront restaurant profiles make this an ideal trip planning guide, as well as a compendium of superb dishes associated with them. From Stuffed Striped Bass (San Francisco Fish Company, Ferry Building, San Francisco); to Avou Fisherman's Stew (Half Moon Bay Brewing Company, Half Moon Bay); to Macadamia Nut Crusted Halibut Served with Mango-Papaya Relish (Old Fisherman's Grotto Restaurant, Monterey); to Grilled Salmon with Ponzu Sauce (Shadowbrook, Capitola), this is a kitchen cook friendly, and sea food enthusiasts delight!

Fisherman's Wharf is an eclectic confluence of cultures, entertainment, and people. Its attractions include everything from a wax museum to an aquarium to historic landmarks like Ghirardelli Square, but it's the restaurants featuring fresh seafood dishes from around the world that have made this a must-see destination for over a century. The Food of Fisherman's Wharf provides an easy-to-use guide that navigates through the hundreds of restaurants on Fisherman's Wharf and beyondall the way from Tiburon in Marin to Monterey Bay. Two hundred color photos capture the charm and atmosphere of the restaurants, while recipes compiled from top chefs offer both a preview of the restaurants and a permanent doggy bag.
